

SINS INVALID

October 2 - 4, 2009
Brava Theater
San Francisco

4th ANNUAL SINS INVALID PERFORMANCE

8^{PM} Friday, October 2nd

8^{PM} Saturday, October 3rd (ASL interpretation)

7^{PM} Sunday, October 4th

Brava Theater Center

2789 24th St. (at York), San Francisco

Sins Invalid celebrates the power of embodiment and the tenderness of struggle, strips taboos off sexuality and disability, and offers a vision of beauty that includes all bodies and communities. Join us for a night of resistance to invisibility!

Artists include: Aurora Levins Morales, Antoine Hunter, John Benson, Mat Fraser, Ralph Dickinson, Leah Lakshmi Piepzna-Samarasinha, Nomy Lamm, Todd Herman, Leroy F. Moore Jr., seeley quest, Maria Palacios, and Patty Berne.

Wheelchair accessible. ASL interpreters provided by Stage Hands on October 3rd. Please refrain from using scented products, although we cannot guarantee a scent-free space.

Tickets available at www.brownpapertickets.com and for cash at the door on a first-come-first-served basis. $15 - $25 sliding scale; no one turned away for lack of funds.

Please Note: Show contains explicit content

www.sinsinvalid.org | info@sinsinvalid.org | 510.689.7198

Supported by the Aepoch Fund, the San Francisco Arts Commission and the Zellerbach Family Foundation.

A EPOCH

design: micahbazant.com • photo: RichardDowning.com ©2009